Beaver Creek Home Destroyed

A fire burned a Beaver Creek home owned by Morey Denton early Sunday morning. Flames had engulfed the residence when firemen arrived at approximately 1:40 a.m. A neighbor reported the fire at the South Oak Road home and no one was injured in the blaze. The cause of the fire has not yet been determined.

In other police news, a 6-year-old Roscommon boy and a 32-year-old Elk Rapids woman were injured in a motorcycle accident along Chase Bridge Rd. in South Branch. David Clickner and Linda Gursinski were both taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment following the accident August 8 around 7 p.m.

'Millersburg Kid' Roast Set for August 25th

Roasting Ron Fraser on August 25 will be a pleasure, according to the committee planning a lambasting of last year's Citizen of the Year.

While Americans pride themselves on being civilized, there is another method of roasting humans that can be just as painful. The committee plans on toasting Fraser on both sides through an instant microwave humor process.

1st County Fair Ready For Take-Off Aug. 19-21

Crawford County, around since 1845, will host its first County Fair this weekend, August 19-21, at Hanson Hills.

Registration of Exhibits — everything from garden vegetables, needlework, livestock, to homemade candy — will start events Friday, August 19, from 8 a.m. to Noon. The Exhibits will be judged Friday afternoon and then go on display at the fair for the rest of the weekend.

A carnival and band will help kick off the 1st Annual Crawford County Fair on Friday.

Saturday the main event will be an open horse show. Also on tap are kids hay rides, chain saw carving, a performing arts show, security dog demonstrations, a skin-diving demonstration, helicopter display, dunk tank, and softball tournament.

Music entertainment is also planned throughout the fair and kids events are scheduled Saturday at 4:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Fair premium books are still available at all Grayling State Bank locations, Northern National Bank, Chamber of Commerce, AuSagra Acres, or the county courthouse. For free delivery of county fair books, phone the Crawford County Public Transit.

The CCPT will also be offering shuttle service to the fair grounds at Hanson Hills.

Airport Still Closed Weekends

The Grayling McNamara Airport remained closed for the third weekend in a row following lay-offs of two employees at the end of July.

After running in the red $20,000 during the first six months of 1983, the airport had its staff reduced from four to two paid employees. After the lay-offs airport Manager Al Livrance cut airport hours from seven days a week to five days a week.

The county is currently footing the bill at the airport - including picking up the tab of a $42,663 deficit from last year - but a new transportation authority will soon be taking over controls. With the transportation authority, airport costs will be split among the county (67.93 percent), township (23.3 percent), and the city (8.77 percent).

Opening the airport weekends doesn't appear likely for the rest of the month of August despite the amount of air traffic the airport will lose during its busy season.

The assistant manager at the airport has left to take another job and the remaining employee will be on vacation for two weeks. The Board of Commissioners at their meeting last Tuesday approved calling back one of the laid-off workers to fill in for the vacationing employee. The position of assistant manager will be advertised.

Several persons at the commissioners meeting said they hoped the airport could revert to seven days a week operation again. They said the airport was operated with just two employees as little as 20 months ago before the staff was increased to four.

Another option, contracting operation of the airport to an individual, was also discussed, but the Com-

GOV. JAMES BLANCHARD praised the role of the guard in his speech to more than 7,000 members undergoing annual training. "In the past you have responded with care and concern in the face of civil disturbances, ice storms, forest fires, blizzards, chemical spills and tornadoes," the governor said, "I am confident that if I need to call on you to duty, you will respond quickly. Blanchard Reviews Troops

The weatherman cooperated and provided perfect conditions for Gov. James Blanchard's first review of the Michigan Army National Guard at the annual parade held Friday, Aug. 12. Nearly 7,000 National Guard men and women were assembled to hear Blanchard praise the Guard and its capabilities.

"In the past you have responded with care and concern in the face of civil disturbances, ice storms, forest fires, blizzards, chemical spills and tornadoes," he said, "I am confident that if I need to call you to duty, you will respond quickly."

Blanchard stressed the importance of Michigan's natural resources to increase the economic productivity of our great state, but said "the best resource we have in the state is our people and these are the people who make up the Guard."

The parade marked the mid-point in the Michigan Army National Guard's two-week annual training session, which will continue through Aug. 20.

New Office Building For Chamber Planned

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce will have its own building soon as a result of action taken recently by the board of directors and the Grayling City Council.

The City Council has agreed to permit the construction of an office in the City Park. Council members agreed with the chamber board that the facility would give the chamber an identity of its own. They were also pleased that the design would include bathroom facilities for the public during events held at the park.

An involved series of developments made the building possible which included a rapid number of decisions by the city, county and chamber board. A committee consisting of John Alef II, Ernie Dawson, Randy Thompson and Joe Wakeley worked a series of miracles according to observers, to get the project rolling.

Thompson who is the Crawford County Community Development director worked with the committee in drawing a rough sketch of the floor plan. With that sketch they approached the Crawford County Economic Development Fund Committee to ask for a loan of $27,000. That committee administers money that has been repayed from earlier Housing and Urban Development loans. The money has been placed in a special fund specifically for economic development.

At the same time as this loan application was taking place, Thompson was contacting the Crawford, Oscoda Ogemaw, Roscom-mon Intermediate School District Vocational officials about sharing the cost of a building supervisor. He also contacted Crawford AuSable Schools officials about sharing the cost of the supervisor and permitting the school's vocational students to construct the facility as their annual experience project.

During this same period, See Chamber on Page 16

Board Okays Use of Field, Disapproves of Jr. Football

At a special meeting Monday the Crawford AuSable School Board approved a request by the Northern Football League to use the school field but recommended parents not allow their children to play in the tackle football league.

The board voted 5-1 in favor of issuing a statement stressing their opposition to letting young children, in grades 6-8, play in the tackle football league. They stated the weight of medical opinion indicates tackle football at that age poses great physical risks to the present and future health of the developing child.

The board said it felt obliged to allow the league to See NFL on Page 16

Chamber Seeks New Snowmobile Trail

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce has made a grant application to the Department of Natural Resources for funds to construct a new snowmobile trail in the Grayling area.

Chamber officials were reportedly told by local DNR representatives that there would be ample funds in the snowmobile budget to groom the Lovell's and Skyline trails. Upon hearing that, the chamber applied for funds to create the new path that would hook up with the northern portion of the Blue-

Bear Trail in Kalkaska County.

If the grant is approved, the trail parking lot would be located just north of M-72 about two miles west of Grayling. The trail would follow the path of the Michigan Horse and Hiking Trail to near the Manistee River Road where it would veer straight north to the Cameron Bridge Road. From that point, the trail would head west to link with the Blue-Bear Trail.

Hatchery officials have had to up their sights to 30,000 or 35,000 visitors during its initial season.

From Our Corner...

This weekend marks the first annual Crawford County Fair to be held at Hanson Hills just west of Grayling...now if the weather will cooperate for this weekend like it did the two previous ones everything will be hunky-dory for the inaugural of Fair time in Crawford County...in case you missed it, the schedule of events appear on the front page...check them out and plan to be a part of the Fair...

It doesn't seem possible that in three weeks Labor Day will be here signalling the end of summer...the return to school and college for many young people...and the tranquility of autumn will be setting in with the changing of the leaves and the start of frost on the pumpkins...with pro football in their practice season, after Labor Day brings forth the excitement of high school and college football...

We just thought we'd mention the above...

Last week we mentioned in our corner that we may have our Traverse City girls with us for a few days toward the end of the week...well, it came to pass...Toni, T.J. and Stefany arrived Thursday and spent until Sunday with us...we brought this up again because a monumental event happened Saturday while they were here...Stefany lost her very first tooth...it practically fell out by itself, you wouldn't know it listening to Stef...it took both Toni and T.J. to assist in the extraction...

An idle thought...we have only seen R.J. twice this summer and the reason we bring this up is the fact he always made good copy when we were in need of copy...which is right at the present...since R.J. got out of the ice cream business and became an ex-downtown merchant we haven't the slightest idea where he hides himself now...possibly when school starts he'll surface and something interesting will happen to help the ol' fella out now and then on this turkey...we must mention here though that R.J.'s mother stopped into see us while she was visiting from New York, it is always a pleasure to see her when she comes to northern Michigan during the summer...

We were talking to the Leprechaun following our corner when we said we bring this up is the fact he always made good copy when we were in need of copy...which is right at the present...since R.J. got out of the ice cream business and became an ex-downtown merchant we haven't the slightest idea where he hides himself now...possibly when school starts he'll surface and something interesting will happen to help the ol' fella out now and then on this turkey...we must mention here though that R.J.'s mother stopped into see us while she was visiting from New York, it is always a pleasure to see her when she comes to northern Michigan during the summer...

We're trying to finish this turkey Sunday afternoon as we have to take Thelma to see Dr. Zimmerman Monday afternoon for her second checkup and we know we won't have time to add anything on Monday...for those interested, Thelma progresses some little bit every day, and maybe after our visit in Traverse City we may know more about how the progress should be going...Dr. Sundt who did the surgery at St. Mary's Hospital has kept in touch with Dr. Zimmerman during all of her traumatic experience while out there...

So if there is no more time before deadline, we will say goodnight to T.J., Stefany and Amber and to all of our readers plan on taking in part of Crawford County's first annual fair this coming weekend...we're sure you will enjoy yourself...fun for everyone...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Reason for Paul's Bold Ministry Romans 15: 14-16

Last week we studied how Jesus ministered to the Jews that they might reach the Gentiles. Today we shall begin studying Paul's ministry as an apostle to the Gentiles fulfilling the Will of His Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul viewed the saints at Rome as mature in the faith. They were full of goodness to motivate them to do right. They were full of knowledge to know what was right to do. They had the ability to admonish, edify or build up each other in the faith. Because of this maturity, Paul could speak boldly to them. "And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another." Romans 15:14.

Paul ministered boldly to the Christians at Rome because his ministry was a gift of God's grace. "Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God." Romans 15:15. Paul understood that his message and his ministry were not his own, but were a gift of God's grace.

Someone once challenged our column "The Bible Speaks" by saying he would not dare be so presumptuous as to say he was speaking for God. One who believes the Bible to be the very Word of God, and knows he is called of God to minister His Word should be bold for God. One who does not believe every book, chapter and verse in the Bible to be the Word of God is indeed very presumptuous to claim to speak for God. Paul's holy boldness was a gift of God's grace, and had nothing to do with Paul the man.

Paul ministered boldly to the Christians at Rome because his ministry to them was an act of sacrifice and worship towards God. "That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost." Romans 15:16. No church or denomination or school can make a man a minister of God. Only God can call a man into the ministry by His grace. A minister of Jesus Christ is called to minister the gospel of God. One cannot claim to be a minister of Jesus Christ who does not believe and preach from the Bible as his final authority. Those who minister the religious pluralism of our day which alters the authority of the Bible by religious experience, tradition and human reason are ministering the humanistic liberalism of their own hearts.

A true minister of God must realize that his office is a gift of God, his message is a gift of God, and his work is a work of God the Holy Spirit using the office and the message of God to reach people with salvation and Christian growth to the acceptance and approval of God, to bring Glory to the name of God alone. Prison Population High Despite Overcrowding Orders

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

Although prisoner sentences have been cut under a prison overcrowding order in effect since March 22, state officials are facing the prospect of having to declare a second overcrowding emergency order while the first is still in effect.

An overcrowding emergency cannot be declared over until prison population drop to 95 percent of capacity and the early paroles granted since March have not yet reduced inmate levels close to that mark.

The state's prison population is currently at 12,904 or 143 prisoners below the 13,047 rate capacity of the system, Gail Light, Department of Corrections Information Officer said.

She added that is about what the population count has been running through the summer and is about 500 inmates higher than the 12,400 mark that represents the 95 percent capacity level permitting the overcrowding order to be rescinded.

During the overcrowding emergency, prisoner minimum sentences are reduced 90 days. Another 90 days would be cut if a second emergency is declared on top of the current one.

The first emergency was declared in 1981 and prisoners eligible for sentence reduction who have not yet been released have had a total of 450 days cut from their sentences.

But with September and October constituting months when "higher than average" persons are imprisoned, Light said another order may have to be declared while the current one remains in force.

September and October tend to be higher commitment months, she said, because many trials which have been delayed for summer vacation are resumed.

If another emergency is required, it cannot be automatically declared as was the current operating emergency, Keith Roberts, assistant attorney general for corrections, said.

The law provides for only one automatic re-triggering, which happened on March 22. An overcrowding order was first declared in December.

If the prison population exceeds 100 percent for 30 consecutive days, then the corrections commission would have to certify that overcrowded conditions exist and Governor James Blanchard would have to declare an emergency.

Roberts said it would not be enough for the old emergency order to simply remain in effect until prison population dropped to 95 percent of capacity.

If another emergency is declared, it would be the sixth time the state has had to invoke the act's provisions.

It would also be the first time an emergency was declared while one technically was underway. An emergency declaration does not actually mean prisoners are released early, but it does mean they may have earlier parole considerations.

The current emergency was automatically declared after a December emergency declaration failed to reduce the prison population to 95 percent of capacity within 90 days.

Light said the automatically renewed emergency does not have to expire within 90 days as the state tries to reduce the prison population.

KIDS KRUSADE ADVENTURES—The Grayling Assembly of God, 911 Elm St. is planning an exciting week of "Kids Crusade Adventures" August 21-25. Conducting this unique children's presentation are Pat McAllister from Long Beach, California and Lei Bolinger from Flint, Michigan.

Grayling Booster Club
Attn. Harry Wolfenbarger

Dear Mr. Wolfenbarger, The Lovells Township Board would like to take this opportunity to thank the Grayling Booster Club for another job well done.

We very much appreciate the playground equipment which your club provided and are happy to say it is getting good use. When we were in the process of building Douglas Park, you helped us in building the pavillion, which is in constant use in the summer-time. Now we are developing a ball diamond in the park and once again you have helped us by furnishing a back stop.

We are very proud of our Douglas Park and would be very happy to have your club members see it.

Most of the citizens in our community have supported the Booster Club and want to say how much we appreciate your help and your support for our community.

Thank you, Booster Club for another job well done. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
Lovells Township Board
Frederick Schaibly

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey,
The August 11 Article by Glenn Taylor is both amusing and interesting. He can't possibly find anyone in the entire county who would believe such propaganda as the idea that helicopter pilots are trying to "best avoid populated areas and adhere to all noise abatement procedures" in their efforts to prepare for the Big One.

He was obviously writing for the deaf and dumb instead of the generally sophisticated Avalanche reader. I ache for October and the narcotic quiet between the departure of the airboys and the arrival of the snowmobile cowboys.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Pastor Barnett, Your recent advertisement, "Red or Dead?" is regrettable not only for its obvious lack of perspective on the nuclear arms race, but also for its attack on those who seek to make the world a better and safer place through practicing the highest Christian ideal of non-violence. That you would also invoke the concept of "truth" is again regrettable, since you proceed by providing no factual information to support your argument.

A suggestion: next week don't spend any money on another advertisement. Instead, stop by the Avalanche office and pick up the book I have left for you entitled "The Fate of the Earth", by Jonathan Schell, ($2.50 from Avon publishers) and make an attempt to get at a good deal of current information on the global, national and local consequences of the holocaust you are sure is not coming. The money you would have spent on another ad and the book I'm giving you can then be spent on ordering more copies for distribution.

Roast

A group of his friends and acquaintances, who might not be in that position after the August 25 date, plan on telling about the Millersburg Kid in the first and only expose of his life.

The dinner planned to reveal the untruths of Fraser's life will be held at the National Guard Armory beginning at 8:30 p.m. According to the committee, tickets for the affair are selling for the ridiculously low price of $8.50 for roast beef and a roast full of humor. Tickets are available at the Grayling State Bank, Northern National Bank, Cornell Realty, Holiday Inn, and the Grayling Chamber of Commerce.

The annual affair for the benefit of the Winter Carnival is usually a sellout, so interested persons are advised to get tickets early.

GHS Grad Explores Historical St. Ignace Huron Village

Richard Allen, a 1979 GHS graduate and senior archaeological student at MSU, is sifting through the site of one of Michigan's oldest known village sites at St. Ignace.

Allen, along with 11 other MSU students and their field director from the MSU Museum, is nearing the end of ten weeks of exploring a Huron Indian village dated before 1700. This summer's work is the fourth dig headed by MSU at the site.

The students are digging down three to five feet in a trench believing to span the north edge of the Huron village. As they carefully dig, the students look for rusty bits of metal, shards of glass, and other artifacts that will give them clues to village life three hundred years ago.

The Straits area is a prime site for archaeological digs because it was occupied nearly continuously for more than 300 years.

OES Picnic

The Grayling Chapter Order of the Eastern Star is having a picnic at the home of Worthy Matron and Eva Bidwell on August 26, 1983 at 6:30 p.m. All Masons and their wives are invited to attend. For directions, call 348-5173. Hope to see you there.

Strolling Around Town

Thanks to a young businessman in Grayling, some rundown houses are looking much better. Scott McClain is renovating the houses in the 800 block on Plum Street and improving a whole neighborhood.

The Clark station has flowers again this year and looks very clean and neat and the Cedar Motel next to it is colorful with flowers.
The back alley between Cedar and Peninsular is planted with flowers and looks much better than just any old alley. The Grayling Mercantile planters are filled and the trees are still growing well.

McEvers, Tinkers and Kings on Park Street keep up their yards and have flowers while in the next block on Park, Herluf Moshier has painted his garage and the Duncleaves lawn is doing well.

My gratitude to the three canoe liveries that I see every day, Penrod's, Bor-chers, and Jolly Redskin.
They are always well kept.

Youth Service Bureau

The weather caused some problems with last weeks recreation schedule, but we did manage to provide three days of recreational activities. On Monday we held our Exercise and Nutrition Class in the morning and went on a tour of the Fire Dept. in the afternoon. Ten students attended these activities. On Tuesday we went bowling at the American Legion Bowling Lanes. The kids really enjoyed this activity. Twelve students attended Tuesdays' activity.
On Wednesday some kids
from the Sibs for Kids program joined with us in a picnic and tour of Hartwick Pines State Park. Twenty students accompanied us to the pines and, despite the rain, we all had a lot of fun.

Our special thank you this week go out to Bob Golinick of the Fire Dept., Mrs. Pittman of the Legion Lanes, and Aleta Seifert from the Sibs for Kids program. We also wish to thank Mr.
Malinowski of Air Way
Automation and the people at Klein and Klein Insurance Company for providing us with the tickets to the Magic Show.

Because of the weather problems this week we have made several changes in our recreation schedule. Please note the new Recreational Activities List.

school rankings of more than 1,500 women science, liberal arts, engineering, agriculture, business and education majors found no significant difference in scores by the time students reached their junior year of college.

Blueprints For Family Living

By Rev. Richard H. Wadsworth

What is the one thing we can receive in this world that will bring us profit? We all want to profit or succeed in our labor. We want our lives to account for something. No one sets out to fail at what they do. Therefore, what is the one single thing we must have to succeed? Some feel that great knowledge will gain success, some feel that being able to speak in many languages, while to others it is the ability to be a great orator.

The answer is not any of the above. It is true they may play a part in gaining profit, but within themselves they do not bring true success, profit or satisfaction. Here is the answer, "Charity (love) never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away" (1 Corinthians 13:8.) The word "Charity" does not mean giving, expecting to deduct from ones income tax. It does mean giving without expecting anything in return, not even a "thank you."

Notice the first part of that verse, "Love never faileth." It always does the proper thing at the proper time. "Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; Rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth;" (1 Corinthians 13:4-6).

What this means is, love is always patient and kind, receives joy at others success, does not exalt itself or bring attention to itself, nor does it express pride or vanity, nor does anything that is disgraceful, dishonourable, or indecent. Love does not find its own happiness at the expense of others, and it is not easily provoked, it takes no record of others wrongs and finds no joy in evil of any kind.

Anyone who can follow this outline in all that they do will profit in this world and the world to come.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Mr. Madsen:
The policy of the Grayling Little League is not to respond to letters of complaint through the Editor's Mailbox, however as Warren & Ann Doten, Jim & Ann McMillan, Debbie Roberts, and Johanna Jurkovich are awaiting a reply and apparently could not attend the Board of Director's meeting or talk to a member we will make an exception and respond to their questions. (Crawford County Avalanche, August 11, 1983 edition)

1) The problem of umpires exist in all three divisions Minor, Major and Senior. Larry Raymond did an excellent job in acquiring umpires before the start of the season only to find that many of those who stated they would work never showed for the games. For some unknown reason men and women do not want to umpire these games. If each parent would umpire just one game during the season we would have more than enough.

In the past Minor League games have been scheduled for 4:15 p.m., however with the addition of lights this year the Minor League did start at either 5 or 5:30. It should be noted that even with the 4:15 start, most days the Minor Leagues drew the largest crowds. It has been our finding that parents do not want their kids playing organized baseball on Saturday's and our Saturday games draw the smallest attendance.

2) Training sessions for umpires have been set up in the past, the latest one saw two men show up even though the class was heavily publicized.

3) In fund raising it has been found that more people respond if they get something in return for their donation. The last two years our projects have brought in over $2500 each year. In past year's when it was a strictly cash contribution less than $500 was donated. This year the board looked at six different projects before deciding on the one we did. It was chosen because it offered the highest profit to the league and was a low cost, popular item.

4) All profits are returned to the League's general fund for use in all Divisions. A financial statement for each month is available to anyone attending the monthly meeting, also Little League Baseball, Inc. requires an annual statement from every league.

Once again we would like to remind everyone that we hold regular meetings the second Thursday of each month, except November and December. Meetings are held at M.A.T.E.S. starting at 7:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend any of these meetings. The September meeting is the annual election of officers and we urge anyone interested in Little League to attend.

Members of the Board of Directors will gladly meet with any organization, group, or individual to discuss Little League at any time. Members of the Board are:

Larry Akers, President
Fred Allen, Vice-President
Bill Ruddy, Treasurer
Connie Swande, Secretary
Ernest Balch, Player Agent
Larry Raymond, Head Umpire
Mick McNamara, Purchasing Agent
Ray Halstead, Senior Div. Vice-President
Mike Shearer, Major Div. Vice-President
Bob Gingerich, Minor Div. Vice-President
Dallas Hudson, Member at Large

Sincerely yours,

Larry L. Akers

May Start League of Women Voters in County

Two representatives from the Traverse City League of Women Voters spoke to a group of women at Chief Shopperton's Thursday evening. The Grayling women are interested in starting a League of Women Voters in Crawford County in the fall and wanted more information about the organization.

The League is a nonpartisan, grass-roots, multi-issue group that is a recognized force in shaping public policy across the country. There are 61 leagues in Michigan and some 200,000 members and supporters nationwide.

Founded in 1920 at the end of a 72-year struggle to gain women's suffrage, the League worked to educate women on how to exercise their new political rights and responsibilities. Though its programs and priorities have changed over the years, the organization has remained true to its basic purposes: to foster citizen involvement and develop citizen leaders, to help people understand public issues and how government works, and to discuss and influence public policies.

The League is known for its nonpartisan political services providing candidates voting records and positions on issues, often published in local newspapers at election time. The Michigan State League publishes a "Citizen's Handbook" of basic information on voting, elections and the political organization of government. The much publicized 1976 and 1980 Presidential Debates were sponsored by the National League.

Although the organization does not back political candidates nor support parties, it studies and takes a position on issues concerning political and educational policies. It forms a network of members across the country who are interested in staying informed on issues of national, state and local importance.

Any citizen over 18 can become a member. The group is looking for potential membership and business support in the community. Anyone interested in more information about the League should call Darlene Fenn, 348-5923 during the day or Pat Hanson 348-3157 (evenings) and watch the newspaper for scheduled meetings.

GUARD WIVES ENTERTAINED—The Michigan National guards wives were recently entertained at a luncheon held in their honor by the ladies of the Grayling community. After a delicious luncheon of pita salads, dessert and all the trimmings the group was entertained by songstress Tammy Hulbert of the Grand Traverse area. Tammy has just represented her area as Miss Grand Traverse this past year and prior to college is waiting for acceptance in the touring musical group "Up With People".

Mrs. Grace Andrews was in attendance representing the Michigan National Guard officer's wives. Mrs. Donna Gwilt led us in the opening and closing prayer. The National Guard is a very important part of our community and the women of Grayling were very pleased to entertain their wives this year.

Every Thursday Night! Community Band Still Rehearsing More People Needed

The recently organized Grayling Community Band is still holding regular rehearsals at Hanson Park on Thursday evenings. Any member of the community who plays a band instrument is cordially invited to come and join in the music making. Rehearsals begin at 7:00 p.m.

America's Credit Unions....

Although the soundness of financial institutions are generally measured by assets, there's much to be said for the strength people bring.

Credit unions have the assets and the people. Credit unions are cooperatives with more than 50 million members and 85 billion in assets.

And at your credit union you're not just a customer and an account number, you're a member with a vote. And you're treated as a friend.

But friendliness is not why most people choose a financial institution. It's service and convenience. Credit unions offer up-to-date services such as share drafts, VISA cards, and IRAs.

Your credit union has it all, so use it to its fullest. If you're not a member, call us for information about joining.

We're here today for all your tomorrow's.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

A month or so ago, I stood in a patch of sunlight let in by a tree having been blown down in the midst of many other trees. Its fall had left an opening in the canopy overhead and room for sun-starved plants to thrive, and thrive they would until the tops of the surrounding trees crowded into that opening. Standing in the midst of that timber in a small patch of life-giving sun, it seemed easier to understand how an early settler must have felt when he dropped the first tree in the forest which would become a farm. Oak, hickory, beech, maple, elm, poplar and walnut went down chip by chip under the axe. Year after year, with some eighty trees to the average acre, life was a long-handled axe and a cross cut saw. Small trees were cut down, large trees girdled to kill them. First-year corn was planted under the skeleton forms of the still-standing trees and as more winters passed, more trees were felled, burned, and split into rails to fence cattle out. With enough sons and neighbors, a man might make a stump-land farm in ten years or so, but battling the trees and remaining stumps consumed three generations. It is said that history repeats itself and not far from that patch of sunlight, there is an old field just recently planted to row upon row of pines.

4-H News and Highlights

By Krls Williams

Hi Grayling Parents and Citizens, It's Fair Time!!! As we all know this is Crawford County's first fair. Many of our 4-H youth have made projects or learned skills, such as a cooking, during the past year. Parents please encourage your children to display their projects at the fair. Whether it be Woodworking, Cooking, Sewing, Small Farm Animals, etc. So many categories to choose from. Let's get our projects on display.

I hope this will not only encourage 4-H youths, but also our leaders and citizens of our community of all ages young and old alike. Let's make our first fair a big success!

Proud of something - Show It Off - Bring It to the Fair!!! It's also that time of year again when our youth begin to think about which 4-H club or clubs to join for the coming year. We will in the very near future be coming out with a pamphlet stating what 1983-84 has to offer. Many will be the same, and we hope to have some new clubs to offer.

|-------------------|------------|------------------------|
| Personal Grooming | Horse Club | Shooting Sports |
| Arts & Crafts | Bowling | Small Farm Animals |
| Woodworking | Archery | Little 4-H'er Softball |
| Performing Arts | Swimming | Cooking & Sewing |
| Movie Making | Leader Dog | |

Not only is it time for the youth to be thinking about which club to join, but what you as parents or citizens of our community can do to help. We need adults of our community to become involved in 4-H, as a leader, assistant leader or even a resource person. If there are any subjects listed that interest you, or maybe you have a new idea for us, please contact us at the County Extension office 348-2841 Ext. 265. We are looking forward to the new 4-H year, and with your help it will be a great year for our youth.

Please don't be shy or think someone else will do it. We never have enough people involved. So come on. Give us a call today!!! County Extension office 348-2841 ext. 265.

During Grayling Milltown Festival one of our 4-H families, Bill, Carolyn, Jim & Mary Beth Boone and our 4-H exchange student, Shigeo Yamanaka, held an Old Fashion Days on their farm (Hillside Farms). Many people volunteered to come and show how things were done in the old days. This was a big success for being the first time. We know next year will be even bigger. Thanks Bill & Carolyn for sharing your farm and the chance for people of our community to learn something new. We will be looking forward to next year.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Editor,

I'm writing in response to a letter from "A Taxpayer" concerning the High School Band. In that letter the writer was angry because the Baldwin band had to march in Grayling's parade. As a member of the GHS Viking band, I would just like to point out that, because the millage didn't pass year before last, our band this year consisted of a mere 14 members. As a group, we voted it would be more beneficial, and that we could better cover the instrumentation for jazz music, as opposed to concert or marching music. None the less, we still performed, just in a different way. We played at the Travelogues, Boy Scout and 4-H banquets, the R.S.V.P. Recognition Banquet, basketball games, and we even helped the middle school band give concerts by playing the instruments they couldn't play because of their lack of people.

I'm almost sure that the 11 of us who are left from the jazz band would have performed in the parade if we, the members, had been asked by someone. We could have ridden on a trailer and played, similar to the Dixieland Band.

Sincerely,

Beth Bedard

Viking Band member
P.S. We have a new band director this year, Steve Britton, and we will also be increasing our number of members. People will be happy to know we start marching band rehearsal August 23. If all goes as planned, we will be marching at the home football games.

ALUMNI NEWS—We salute the "Golden Class of '33". It was a good group of 35. Quite a number of them stayed in Grayling after graduation, married, went into business, raised their families. Some of these have offspring observing anniversaries with parents (even grandparents), namely, Wilma Burrows LaGrow...Cora Ann LaGrow Waldron, '53...and Lois Sorenson LaGrow...Connie LaGrow Cosgrove, '58...Sidney Canfield, '78...Cecilia Canfield, '83 and Elma Mae Sorenson Moshier...Carla Jean Moshier Gingerich '88.

Their families have added 60 plus to our G.H.S. Membership. This class is ready. Blest Be The Tie That Binds. Come out on the 10th and help them celebrate.

Here is my chance to tell a little story. One evening I passed our Superintendent, Kent Reynolds, while he was out jogging...made me remember R.R. Burns, Superintendent in '33. He liked to run early in the morning in his white gym shorts. When some of the locals spotted him, they wondered who that was running around in his underwear!

Jim Burch, '53 had a special treat this Spring when his daughter graduated from Albion High on the exact day as his 30th. More next week. Clara Sorenson, Membership Sec'y.

SIBS FOR KIDS—Pictured above are Volunteers who helped at the Sibs concession during Milltown Festival. They are Kay Guiliani, her son Kert, Aleta Seifert and her daughter Erika. Erika was one of the more than 50 children who had their faces painted as a clown and many of those participated in the parade.

The Sibs program made enough money on their concession to purchase T-shirts for each youth and adult in the program. They are maroon and white and say "Someone needs you" Sibs for Kids.

We want to thank the following people who helped or provided equipment for our concession, Jim Bourrie, Grayling Restaurant; Community Church of God, McDonalds, Rochette's Party Store, Pat Callahan, Vera Wylie, Lisa Burrell, Marie Stephan and those pictured above.

Chamber Chatter

By Joyce Kolka

Although the 1983 Milltown Festival is over, there are a number of highlights that will continue to remind us for years to come about this festival.

The naming of Sherry Hanson as Citizen of the Year was certainly a fine decision. The thrill of seeing the Baldwin High School Band in the Grand Parade was topped by the massive size of the parade itself.

And then of course was that stroke of genius that brought us the Mud Wrestling Contest. That sport has already been planned for repeat performances by the chamber.

Plans are now underway for Milltown Festival 1984 and the committee will make that one an even better feature than this year.

Along with the fine events for visitors, was the attractive image of Grayling with its main streets lined with flowers. It is a startlingly beautiful sight to see those curbsides and planters with the display of color.

A number of people have commented however that there are spots where high weeds behind the flowers take away from their beauty. It has been suggested that perhaps the property owners could help the matter by some lawn maintenance.

On another matter Crawford County now officially has a Snowmobile Council and is affiliated with the Michigan Snowmobile Association. It required five clubs or civic groups to make the affiliation possible and those five include Rotary, Kiwanis, Hotel and Motel Owners, The Grayling Sportsmen's Club and the chamber. They have agreed to support the formation of the council and as a result Grayling Crawford will be pinpointed on a map that will be sent to all snowmobile owners.

The recent announcement of a planned building for the chamber at the City Park was not only approved by the City Council and the Chamber Board but it has the staff jumping for joy. While the existing space in the City Building has worked out well in the past the chamber operations now have the present one room office bursting at the seams.

The Disabled American Veterans will be holding their Michigan Convention at the Grayling Holiday Inn beginning September 21. The chamber is working with the inn in an attempt to hand out souvenir packets from Grayling businesses. Any business that would like to supply about 400 items each of such promotional items as matchbooks, pens, etc. should call the chamber office or deliver the material to the office.

It should be noted that the DAV group has been returning frequently to the area and certainly enhances our economy.

We would like to welcome Jim's Farm Market as a new business in Grayling. A formal ribbon cutting ceremony was held last Friday at a grand opening. We would also like to welcome into our membership the following: Dr. Ramaswamy of the Keyport Clinic, D & W Janitorial Services, Danish Landing Cottages, Dr. Carolyn Ward DiPonio, Hahnenberg Moving & Storage, Inc., Hillside Farms, Initial Impressions, Garland "Bud" Joyce, Knights of Columbus Council 1982, Milltown Nickelodeon, Milltown Tool & Engineering, Inc., Pine Aire Motel, and Father Bill Rabior.

May we remind all clubs, churches and civic groups that the only way a Community Calendar will work is to check with the chamber first about available dates for a function and then when a date is finally selected call it in to register it on the calendar.

When one has finally acquired a home like this, in a neighborhood like this, one has no more problems. Right?

Wrong! Economic problems may be fewer. Personal and family problems often become more complex. Some mighty unhappy people live on Easy Street.

There's nothing wrong with wanting to get ahead. Initiative, ambition, perseverance are endowments God wants us to develop. But material goals must not crowd out spiritual aims. In trying to gain everything one can become nothing.

Your family is in need! In need of Faith. In need of Love. In need of Direction.

Needs that God supplies!

Wind Symphony To Present Rogers City Concert

Rogers City—Three days of unique activities are scheduled in Rogers City this month as part of a residency by the American Wind Symphony Orchestra of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The orchestra's floating arts center, the Point Counterpoint II, will arrive in the Presque Isle County community via Lake Huron Aug. 24. The orchestra's stay will culminate in two free, open-air public concerts Aug. 27 at 8:30 p.m. and Aug. 28 at 3 p.m.

In the two free concerts, the orchestra will perform from its stage aboard the Point Counterpoint, a $3 million barge that was built especially for the musical group. The 195-foot vessel will drop anchor in the Rogers City Yacht Harbor and concert-goers will assemble on the huge Lakeside Park lawn for the performances, designed to appeal to all types of musical tastes.

The Aug. 27 concert will include fireworks as a spectacular visual accompaniment to the orchestra's music.

The outdoor concerts are only part of the activities planned during the three-day residency in Rogers City. Members of the orchestra will present chamber concerts at senior citizen homes and museums; visual arts and poetry symposiums will be presented aboard the Point Counterpoint; and the musicians will perform as part of services in three local churches.

Rogers City is among 40 U.S. communities hosting the orchestra this year. Since being founded by director Robert Austin Boudreau 26 years ago, the organization has performed all over the U.S., in the Caribbean, in South America, and in Europe along the Thames River.

The 45 musicians making up the orchestra are graduates of music schools or universities, teachers of music, or members of symphony orchestras. Average age of the musicians is 23.

Countries represented in this year's orchestra include Japan, Scotland, El Salvador and Haiti, in addition to the United States. While in Rogers City, the musicians will be staying in homes of people in the area.

Music performed by the orchestra covers a wide spectrum of styles. A typical concert may include classical pieces such as G.F. Handel's "Music for the Royal Fireworks," patriotic numbers such as Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever," and light, entertaining offerings such as the theme from "The Sting." The orchestra's repertoire also includes pieces which have been specially commissioned by contemporary composers from 10 countries.

Facts of Law

by
Alton T. Davis, PC
Attorneys & Counsellors
at Law

If someone promises to make a gift to you, even in writing, his promise is unenforceable. If he changes his mind, there is nothing you can do about it.

It is against the law in New York to steal a dead body.

A debtor may not transfer property to prevent creditors from satisfying their legal claims. All transactions within one year of bankruptcy are open to scrutiny to discover if delay or fraud are the debtor's intent.

Property may be acquired by ACCESSION, that is, by means of an increase of something that is owned, such as crops from the land or calves from cows.

Any contract you entered into because you were physically or emotionally threatened is voidable. That means you are not bound to its provisions and can declare it void.

Brought to you as a community service by Alton T. Davis, 114 Michigan Ave., Ph. 348-5232/348-2960.

use the field because it did not conflict with any planned school activities and they felt the decision to allow a child to participate was the responsibility of the parent.

The Grayling team in the league begins their season Sept. 11 against Cheboygan. They play at home Sept. 18.

riders could either follow that circuit or turn south until they reached Crawford County 612, where they would once again join the Manistee River Trail.

The possibility of a grant came about as a result of special funds the DNR sets aside for local use in snowmobile licenses. Although the grant application is no guarantee of final approval, Chamber officials said the DNR representatives in Lansing appear to be looking favorably at the project.

missioners felt a long range decision should be made by the transportation authority, soon to be in command.

The board also learned a new jet fuel truck would cost $60,000 to $80,000. They authorized the airport to check into a repair estimate for the leaky jet fuel truck currently in use. The fuel truck reportedly loses as much as 10 gallons overnight.

the school. Grayling Christian School does not discriminate against national origin, race, sex, or religion in accepting students. We only require that students desire to attend, and that parents pledge to support the school in our program and purpose.

Grayling Christian School uses the Accelerated Christian Education program of instruction. This international system of learning is the largest system of Christian Education operating in America today. The emphasis of education at Grayling Christian School is traditional and conservative stressing strong allegiance to God, Home and Country. The Bible is the center of our learning materials which include the four basic areas of education: Math, Science, English, and Social Studies.

Michael Corlew will again serve as school supervisor, assisted by his wife Lynette, and Paula Williams who will again work with our kindergarten and first grade group.

Christian education is not the choice of everyone, and we are not in competition with the public school, but for those interested parents and students we invite you to consider the educational alternatives offered here. For more details or questions feel free to phone Michael Corlew 821-5631, the School 348-9220, or Pastor Barnett 348-2264.

Chamber

Grayling City Manager Jerry Morford asked the City Council to consider permitting the building to be constructed in the City Park. At a meeting last week they gave tacit approval to the project and asked Morford to work out details of a contract for various maintenance and nominal lease agreements.

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors was called to consider approval of the building plans during the same short interval of time. All of the haste was necessary according to Thompson because the bids for the material must be let and the concrete foundation poured prior to the beginning of school in September.

Thompson said that the complete plans are now being prepared at a very nominal cost by Lennox and Associates of Bellaire. He said that the building will consist of a director's office, large workroom for the public relations director and assembly of materials, a reception and literature display area and the two inside-outside opening bathrooms.

Groundbreaking for the facility will be held in the near future and the building is expected to be completed next June. It is expected that the completed structure will have a model Milltown theme facade and will have a four sided display panel.

Chamber president Joe Wakeley said that the new facility will improve work efficiency and serve as a center for tourist information. He said, "We are delighted at the prospect of our own building to serve as an attraction to visitors to the area." He said, "We are deeply indebted to Randy Thompson for all of his work in making this building possible. The fine community spirit shown by Jerry Morford and the City Council is also an example of cooperation certain to improve the quality of life in the area."
